in conversation with Sandy Verschoor

COME ALONG FOR A LIVELY AFTERNOON WITH JANE CARO, HOSTED BY SANDY VERSCHOOR, TALKING LYREBIRD, BOOKS, AND LIFE.

In her latest book, we are reminded that our native lyrebirds are brilliant mimics. So, if one mimics a screaming woman, might it have been a witness?

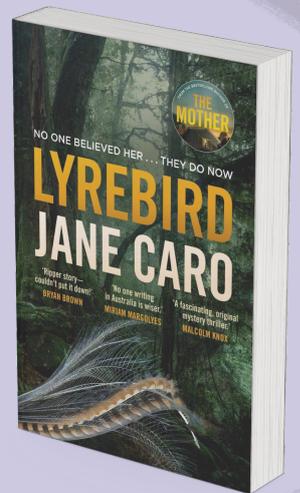

But how does a young PhD student and a new detective convince anyone that a bird can be a reliable witness especially when there's no body.
